

Wake Forest to hold Senior info meeting

WAKE FOREST — SING-WF, the Senior Information and Networking Group of Wake Forest, will host a community-wide meeting, Friday, Jan. 26, from 8:15-10 a.m., in the conference room of town hall, 301 Brooks St.

Kip Padgett, town manager of Wake Forest, will be the guest speaker.

Padgett has news to share with attendees about the dementia capable community initiative adopted by the town, including:

- Various programs available from the town through the Parks and Recreation Department
- Expansion updates about the Northern Wake Senior Center and Renaissance Centre
- Upcoming senior events
- Other strategic planning items which affect the senior population
- Transportation plans, including light rail opportunities and N.C. Department of Transportation changes on Capital Boulevard.

Corey Hutcherson, vice president of community relations with the Wake Forest Area Chamber of Commerce, will also provide demographic statistics about census growth in the senior population.

Perkins Counseling, the breakfast sponsor for this meeting, encourages attendees to arrive a little early to enjoy something to eat and a cup of coffee to start the day.

Attendees are encouraged to enter from Taylor Street, behind the building.

For more information contact info@sing-wf.com.

Registration is required, at tiny.cc/regsingwf.